

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.
Since the Indiana Telephone Privacy Program was implemented, I can finally leave my ringer on most of the time without receiving harrasssing phone call's. I consider all un-solicited phone call's harassment and I think the FCC should protect me, instead of Corporate America.